SELECT SCHOOLS.

ON OR ABOUT THE FIRST OF SEPTEMBER, Miss Annie G. Wood, now of Trinidad, will open a Select School in the room now in process of erection on the premises of the Presbyterian mission. She will teach five hours a day and five days a week. Every pupil will be taken to make it an excellent school and attractive to the pupils. The room will be well furnished, neat and commodious, well lighted and ventilated, and in the winter well warmed. The public are invited to examine the room when it shall be completed. The terms will be $3.00 per month, payable monthly. No deduction will be made for absence, except in case of sickness, unless the pupil is absent one week, and when he pupil shall have been absent one week, (there having been no illness to prevent attendance), the seat will be considered vacant and given to the next applicant. Pupils will be registered in the order of application. Application should be made to the undersigned until Miss Wood arrives.

I believe Miss Wood to be well qualified to make this contemplated school such an one as the citizens of Las Vegas would desire. Her testimonials are of a very high and satisfactory character. JOHN A. ANNIN.

Conductor Quigley's train brought down 50 passengers Sunday evening. All the trains of late have been crowded. It is estimated that the cars have brought in 800 passengers during the last month. Of these but few have returned, the return passengers coming mostly from down the country. One party of four last week were from Chihuahua, bound for Indianapolis, one of the gentlemen was an army surgeon during the war, he settled in the country and has resided there since. Nearly the entire number of those arriving on the train are now in the city, by so much adding to its enterprise, intelligence and capital. Las Vegas is bound to be the great city of New Mexico and the new comers are wide awake to that fact. Let them come! The more the better as there is abundant room.

How to be Good Humored.

To be of good cheer in this days of heat and dust and flies you ought to be comfortably homed and well fed; to be comfortably homed and well fed patronize the EXCHANGE HOTEL; there you find ventilated rooms; shady piazzas filled with the aroma of a thousand flowers; excellently seasoned meals and a bar laughing with lemons and oranges and the best liquors and cigars.

Held for Postage.

The following letters are held at the Postoffice on account of insufficient postage: Mrs. Charlotte Foster 633, Green St., Toronto, Canada; George Sevey, Parsons, Kansas; Wm. Hoag, Trinidad, Colorado.

New Drug Store.

The enterprising firm of Herbert & Co., this city, have received a new stock of drugs, medicines, and everything in that line and will open out a branch store in the addition for the better accommodation of the public. They do not propose to be behind in the drug business.

From the top of the hill three miles below town a magnificent scene of natural beauty is presented. The view takes in all the valley in which Romero ville is situated. High mountains are in sight to the west and north while the rocky bluffs forming the cañon through which the river flows, adds wildness to the scene. The visitors who come to the city in search of pleasure should not miss this scene of natural beauty.

Blanchard is putting an iron roof on Charles Maleys new house. It is the first in the New Town.

A letter to the Chicago Times says: upwards of fifteen thousand people annually visit and bathe in the Arkansas hot springs.

There is no reason why an equal or greater number should not annually visit the springs here. The waters are of equal value while the climate and scenery are far superior.
